Please feel free to do as many as you like. Remember, for each piece completed, a stamp will be given. 6 stamps = homework certificate.

Visit the Portsmouth City Museum and take a look round the Arthur Conan Doyle exhibition, the Pompey exhibition or the art gallery - where you can complete an Art Detective trail! Take a picture of your favourite exhibit and write a little bit about your visit. Alternatively, complete the Art Detective trail booklet - available from the front desk.	Create a factsheet about Charles Dickens, finding out about some of the books he has written. You could even visit his Portsmouth birthplace! 	Take a walk down to The Hard, with your sketching pencil, where you can view HMS Warrior 1860. Have a go at drawing Britain's first iron-hulled, armoured battleship. Launched in 1860, Warrior was the pride of Queen Victoria's fleet.
Go for a family walk around Portsmouth. Create a map of your walk using symbols for places of significance.	Visit the library and research any of the following: The Royal Navy John Pounds and the first ragged School Portsmouth Football Club Mudlarks	Listen to Mike Oldfield's 'Portsmouth' on the Internet. Imagine you are a sailor on a ship in the past. Create 4 actions to repeat throughout the song.
